LOCAL BRIEFS.—

Hon. John Manning was in the city yesterday.Prof. W. C. Kerr has almost entirely recovered."St. Patrick in the morning" comes on the 17th of March.We are glad to learn that Rev. A. W.
Mangum is much better.The Board of City Commissioners met next Wednesday evening.Nothing of interest took place in the House of Representatives yesterday.New Jersey is proud of a woman weighing 272 pounds in her neck-ribbon.A husband can readily foot the bills of a wife, who is not afraid of being seen footing the stockings of her husband.E. W. Thomason & Co., No. 3 Willington street, have for sale privately, to-day, a fine bay horse, 9 years old, also a fine milk cow.Messrs. J. J. Hickman, of Kentucky, Edward Carswell, of Canada, and T. N.
Ramsay, of this city, will soon commence a canvass of the State in the interest of the Independent Order of Good Templars.A stylish bonnet can be obtained from Paris for $125. Of course all good husbands will cut this out and show it to their wives; and when it comes home won't she say, O, what a duck of a husband you are.It is now ascertained that the burning of the flue of a chimney at the Capitol, a few nights since, was not concocted by Gov. Caldwell for the purpose of raking out Alex. McIver, the late Superintendent of Public Instruction.Stewart Ellison, colored, yesterday introduced a resolution into the House concerning the sidewalks of Raleigh.
We do not know the provisions of the resolution, but we hope they are such as to compel the repair of Wilmington street in particular.Eighteen cents was paid yesterday for old wood, the refuse part of a cotton press, by M. A. Parker, Cotton Factor, on Martin street. The wood was neatly and substantially packed in a cotton bale. We may add, that this wood is in demand at the same price.The Proprietor of a Boarding House in this city had occasion to leave the city yesterday for a trip to Granville, and requested one of our honorable Senators, whom he regarded as the safest of the male members of his household, to keep an eye to his interests during his absence, at the same time stating there were four grass widows in the house. The Senator regarded the responsibility too heavy, and immediately changed his quarters.

MOVEMENTS OF THE BIBLE AGENT.

—The Rev. P. A. Strobel, Bible Agent for the State, preached in the Presbyterian Church at Fitchboro, in Chatham county, on Sunday morning the 19th January. At the close of the sermon, he made a brief Bible address, and a collection was taken up.In the afternoon, he addressed the Freemans in their own Church. These people appointed a committee to assist in the work of supplying the destitution amongst their own class.At night the Chatham county Bible Society held its anniversary at the Methodist Church. The Hon. L. A.
Mendonza presided. Prayer was offered by the Rev. William Lineberry, of the Baptist Church. The Agent delivered a lengthy address, after which a collection was taken up. The election of officers resulted thus:

Hon. H. A. London, President.

Rev. William Lineberry, Vice President.

N. A. Ramsay, Cor. Secretary.

A. G. Headen, Treasurer and Depositary.Executive Committee—J. A. Womack, William A. Nash, G. W. Thompson, Stephen Hanley and John W.
Hatch.The Executive Committee gave the Agent an order for upwards of $100 worth of books on which they paid him nearly $50; having a credit balance of $61 at the Bible House, the debt of the Society will be small.A grant was solicited from the Parent Society, of the destitution in the county is very great—there having been no efforts made in the Bible work since 1860. The work of canvassing and supplying the county is to be commenced promptly and vigorously prosecuted. This Society commences the new year with encouraging prospects.IMPORTANT NOTICE TO BUILDERS AND SAW-MILL MEN.—By reference to advertisement elsewhere, it will be seen that the Building Committee of the new State Fair Grounds desire proposals for the erection of a fence around the said grounds, some fifty acres in circumference. Proposals must be in by the 3rd of February, and should be left or directed to the News office, marked upon the back of the envelope the nature of the letter.

LEGISLATIVE INCIDENTS.—In the Senate yesterday quite a lengthy debate took place over the bill in favor of Jno.

G. Williams, Esq., of this city, which bill was finally referred to the Judiciary Committee. This bill contemplatestransferring to the State of North Carolina the State may have in the 8,000 acres of land purchased in Harnett county in 1868 by the State as part of the intended Penitentiary tract, for the payment of which the State issued one hundred $1,000 bonds, 56 of these bonds being sold to Mr. Williams for $28,000, which bonds Mr. Williams still holds.The argument is that the said bonds having been declared illegal by the Supreme Court, and the only actual monies having been paid by Mr. Williams, the State investing only the said bonds, Mr. Williams was entitled, so far as the State was concerned, to all interest it may have in said lands. It will be remembered by the reader that the purchase of this land by the State from Mr. J. D. Pruyn created considerable comment and feeling in the State at the time, but the public had not sight of the matter until this reproduced. From the tenor of the discussion yesterday, it would seem that the Legislature intended yielding the State's claims, if any it has, to Mr. Williams, as he is the only actual sufferer from the transaction. The land is probably not worth $1 per acre.During the consideration in the Senate yesterday of a question concerning the pulling down of certain wooden houses in Goldsboro, Harris, of Wake, urged that the doing of this might inflict some hardships upon the poorer classes. Mr. Humphrey informed him that the bill contemplated no such thing, and that the bill was presented by a gentleman belonging to the same party as Harris. The latter replied, "He had not spoken in a party sense, nor did he acknowledge that every bill coming from the Republican side was right—the Republican party had done many foolish things within the last few years."A rather amusing spat took place in the Senate during the consideration of a bill yesterday incorporating the "Seppernong" Navigation and Transportation Company. Mr. Ellis, of Columbus, good humoredly wanted to know what effect this bill would have upon the "seppernong" interests of Eastern Carolina, if it would enhance or decrease the value of seppernong wine, and if it was intended for boats to be navigated in rivers of this delightful beverage? Mr. Cunningham hoped the "transportation fee" (the $25 required by law) would be paid in seppernong.
The bill passed unanimously."YOU KISSED ME."—At the special request of the Senators from Wilson, Guilford and McDowell, we copy the subjoined article from the Goldsboro Messenger of a recent date.We were glad to keep it standing six days at their request, but our standpoint, an old married man, we think one insertion sufficient for the purpose. We have been there, and know how it is:You kissed me! My head had dropped low on your breast,
With a feeling of shelter and infinite rest, While the holy emotion my tongue dared not speak.Flash up like a flame from my heart to my cheek.
Your arms held me fast—O, your arms were folded.Your eyes seemed drawing my soul through my eyes, As the sun draws the mist from the sea to the skies,
And your lips clung to mine, till I prayed in my bliss.They might never unclasp from that rapturous kiss.You kissed me! My heart and my breast and my will In delicious joy for the moment stood still.Life had for me then no temptations nor no vista of pleasure outside of your arms:
And were I this instant an angel, possessed of the glory and peace that are given the soul.I would fling my white robes unpinningly down,
And stretch from my forehead its beautiful crown.To nestle once more in that haven of rest, With your lips upon mine, and my head on your breast.You kissed me! My soul in bliss so divine, Reeled and swooned like a man who is drunken with wine.And I thought "were delicious to die then, in death."Would come while my lips were still moist with your breath;"Were delicious to die, if my heart might grow cold."While your arms wrapped me close in that passionate fold,
And these are the questions I ask day and night:Must my life taste but once such exquisite delight?Would you care if your breast were my shelter as then—would you kiss me again?How, Now?—We copy the subjoined article from the Friend of Temperance, not because of its pleasant reflection on our friend Ramsay, the "Good Templar" Lecturer, but as a "good thing." Bro.
Whitaker, though a worthy Minister of the Gospel, has a good deal of the old Giraffe in him yet. He says:"Ambitions of notoriety, a youth of this city, informs the world through the Press dispatches, that he has interviewed Gen. Grant and the other heads of Departments, with regard to the "new temperance movement in North Carolina.""We hope Friends of Temperance will not become alarmed on account of this interview, for we have no idea that President Grant will interfere with our Order, or that the Heads of Departments will urge him to make us adopt the "new movement." Let us continue in our quiet, humble, yet earnest efforts to advance the Gospel of Temperance, patiently awaiting the appearance of the President's next communication to Congress, which, of course, will inform that body and the world what the "new movement" is.""In the mean time, where is uncle "Jesse Holmes?"A large supply of corn meal, seed oats, mill feed, baled oats, fodder, hay and shucks, at Osborns Grain and Feed Store, Prairie Building, Wilmington street, in this city.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE.—A distinguished Representative of the present General Assembly hands us the following communication for publication, which we willingly give space to:Mr. Editor: On the night of the alarm occasioned by the accidental burning out of one of the chimneys of the Capital, one of the firemen, as the Fire Companies were tugging up Payetteville street, was heard to say to his comrades:"Pull up! pull up! the Capital is on fire! the loss is the loss!"All honor to the unknown fireman, and to his honorable fellows, for the deep interest manifested in the safety of our proud Capitol. May they long live to behold its broad dome unscathed by the devouring element which so often brings to ruin the finest specimens of man's architecture.It is gratifying to know that the citizens of Raleigh have such a deep personal interest in the proud old Capitol, which is the common property as well as the pride and boast of all the citizens of our good old North State.Long may it stand a blessing to the city of Oaks, an honor to the State, and the citadel of justice and liberty, within whose granite walls shall originate counsels of wisdom which shall lead us on to peace and prosperity.

A COUNTRYMAN.

DEAD BODY FOUND.—From a correspondent at Thomasville, we learn, that a few days since a party of hunt-men from New Haven, Conn. while going through a piece of woods, on the plantation of Dr. Mendenhall, near Thomasville, came upon a dead body.Notification was at once given to the citizens and a posse sent to view the body. The dead man was recognized as one Dr. Taylor, known in that section as a root and Indian doctor.The body showed no marks of violence; and as the deceased was an in-offensive person, it is reasonably supposed that he died from the effects of his own medicine.MAYOR'S COURT.—Victoria Pool was the only visitor at the Mayor's levee yesterday. She was prevailed upon to attend by Captain Watson, Chief of the Night Police, and the Mayor's "left bow," who gave her a ticket, in consideration of the "little trick" she enacted at the store of Messrs. Williamson, Uphurch & Thomas, (instead of G. T. Stronach & Brother, as reported in yesterday's News) in hiding a piece of domestic where she thought it was least likely to be searched for. In consideration of her prompt attendance, &c., the Mayor complimented her with free lodgings and board in Hotel de Lee till the first of April next.COMMENDABLE LIBERALITY.—We learned yesterday, by accident, that during the severe cold spell of weather that visited our section on and after the Christmas holidays, the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad brought to this city and distributed through the Young Men's Christian Association, 75 cords of wood, charging only $1 30 per cord, delivered at the wood yard of the depot. This is the contract price paid for wood by the Road at considerable distance from the city, when buying it by immense quantities, thus giving the poor not only this benefit but free transportation.COUNTY OF GILLIAM.—The Committee on Propositions and Grievances to whom was referred the petition for the formation of a new county out of portions of Granville, Franklin and Warren, heard the friends and opponents of the measure at length on Tuesday afternoon. The Senate Committee, as will be seen from our report of legislative proceedings, reported yesterday morning adversely to the formation of said county. The general feeling and temper of the present Legislature seems to be against the advisability of forming new counties in any section of the State.PERSONAL.—We noticed the arrival in this city last night of Mr. A. S. Pendleton and family, formerly Mrs. V. L. Jones, of Warrenton, who were married yesterday.
They are going on a tour South for a short time, after which Mrs. Pendleton will return to our city to fill her engagement as teacher in the Baptist Seminary. Mr. Pendleton being engaged in an extensive agency for the Southern States, will make Raleigh his headquarters.ST. PATRICK'S DAY.—We learn that preparations are already on foot to celebrate this national day of Irishmen with more elad and on a grander scale than ever before known in this city.
An attractive programme of proceedings has been determined upon, but more of this hereafter. All we ask, let it be equal to the last celebration and we are satisfied.COL. T. M. HOLT.—This gentleman President of the N. C. Agricultural Society, will be in this city on Friday, and wishes to meet the members of the Executive Committee at the Yarrowburgh House at 11 A. M. We are glad to see such interest taken in the Society, and feel no hesitancy in saying that if the proposed programme is carried out, people from abroad, visiting us next October at the Fair, will say old Rip Van Winkle is wide awake at last.A GOOD CHANCE FOR INVESTMENT.— By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that parties in Norfolk, Va., desire a partner from this State, with a capital of from $5,000 to $10,000 in a business already established. This is a good opening for an enterprising man. For particulars read the advertisement.PAPER MILLS BURNED.—We learn by a private letter that Gray's paper mills, at Salem, was totally destroyed by fire on Saturday night last. We only learned the fact and have no particulars whether insured or not, or how the fire originated.LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAR-OLINA.

in a few days.

Candidates for the Mayoralty and Marshalship of Wilmington are marching unflinchingly to the front.

[Correspondence of the Daily News Affairs in and around Greensboro, N. C., Jan. 22, 1873.]

Messrs. Editors:

A young man lately from Ashboro informs us that Jane Sydal, a mulatto, while under the control of drink, caught her clothes on fire in her own house near Ashboro, Randolph county, and was burned to death before assistance could be rendered. That's what drink does.

The house in which that cup burst open, which we stated in our last letter, must be investigated with ghosts, or some other unseen nuisance. Last week a lamp chimney broke to pieces and tumbled to the floor. It was sitting on the mantelpiece near where the cup was, the light having been blown out long enough to give the chimney time to cool, then a pop and the fragments rattled on the floor. These mysterious occurrences excited some sensation, and if any more such happens, we will turn a firm believer in ghosts.

J. F. Causey has erected two small cottages on Gas street; M. T. Hughes a large house, on Davis street, for storing and pressing hay; C. G. Yates, a fine dwelling on Church street; Dr. Alford is building a fine dwelling on Washington street, and Odell, Ragan & Co., warehouse near their large brick store on South Elm. The echo of the hammer is heard from many quarters, and goes to prove that Greensboro is progressing.

William A. Walker the depot agent, who has been allowing his business go rather loose about the depot, has been shipped. This is the first instance we have heard which resulted in a Republican being turned out of office for misconduct. "Let us pray!"

If there is one dog in this place, there are something less than a thousand. The member of the Legislature who will introduce a bill compelling every man who "will have a dog" to keep the same within his yard's limit and heavily taxed besides, will be doing North Carolina a great favor, and he will receive the thanks of many a poor fellow who is obliged to hear the howling curs making the nights hideous with their howlings.

A little boy, while driving a two horse wagon through the streets on Wednesday, fell under the wheels, which ran over him and badly injured him, but not fatally.

A passenger train on Thursday run from this junction as far as Kernersville on the Salem Road.

The two Drs. Robertson from Hillsboro have taken up their residence in this place.

The wind Thursday reminded us of the approach of March, and the heavy showers that evening and the one following, the coming of April. The dawn clouded over, and morning found a slight snow on the ground.

The colored people here organized a Temperance Society Monday night, with a goodly number of members.

A couple of our young dancing blobs have opened a dancing academy in the Garrett Hall.

Rained Monday and Tuesday—no end to mud.

Eleven negroes left this place Monday night for Memphis, Tenn., with the intention of working on a Railroad.

Many of our young men for want of employment, are leaving; there for other States. This is a lamentable fact.

REPERT.

The small pox is fairly an epidemic in Boston, and is creating a grave apprehension in that city and its vicinity. Three thousand cases are now reported to exist there, and the percentage of deaths is much larger than by all other causes combined. Nearly all the burials are made in the night. The prevalence of the disease has had a serious effect upon commercial interests generally.

The Board of Health urges the necessity of vaccination, requests prompt information of new cases, and the co-operation of the citizens generally in carrying out all proper sanitary measures.

President Thiers received for his historical works, during his long literary career, eighteen prizes, amounting to nearly three hundred thousand francs.

Cora Pearl's effects are to be sold at auction in Paris.

STEVENSVILLE, Ohio, Sept. 7, 1871.

Dr. W. H. Tull:

Dear Sir:—I feel it a duty to you and to suffering humanity to make public the great merits of your Extract Sarsaparilla and Quinine.

I suffered for years from a skin disease, a great sufferer, my general health broke down, and I was afflicted with nervousness of the most terrible character, which was soon followed by an eruption all over the body, forming large scales, and I became attended with rheumatic pains. Tongue cannot describe my suffering. I was forced to leave my home, and I was attended by several physicians, who rendered me no relief. I despaired of ever being well again, but thanks to a kind Providence I accidentally heard of your medicine. I sent for half dozen bottles, and before I had taken three I began to feel better, my appetite improved, and the rheumatic pains became less severe, and I could sleep again. I have continued its use and have taken eleven bottles and believe I am almost again well. The ulcers have all healed, my skin is smooth and healthy, and I have gained 22 pounds in weight. I believe my sickness resulted from a taint of scrofula. I would earnestly recommend your compound to my fellow sufferers.

With deep gratitude to you, I am ever your friend,

Jas. F. K. K.

THE PEOPLE'S STAMP OF VALUE.—The Government endorsement, which legalizes the sale of PLANTATION BIRDS, is not the only stamp which the Government affords to the people. It bears, in addition to that official sanction, the still more valuable stamp of public confidence.
